2_ think about one experience you lived related to it.

write it.

take a question out of it.

3_ share them between the team

4_ choose one or two and think about one thing to produce to tell it : drawing, text, collage, poem, photo, diagram, ...

it might be serious or not it might be fictionnal or real

it might be optimistic or desesperate

examples

- mega-fire

- amazonian forest and far right in Bresil (Bolsonaro)

- how could we punish them ?

- ...

- imagine a story about an internationnal guerilla protecting the forest. i might draw their logo or write an attack toward a multinational

- energy-fire

- micro network of heating system at a municpal scale
- is there a good/bad scale for wood energy local production ?

- ...

- a diagram about two different scale where you can see that local scale allow to a civic leadership while big companies are confronted to energy' s market
